

BENNY LEONARD USES HIGH COACH, IS ON STEEL HUNT FOR A FIRST-CLASS PITCHER

Paul Flitter the Only Regular From Last Year's Squad, and He Isn't a Star

By PAUL PREP

COACH FALKENHAGEN, of the Frankford High School, is on a steel hunt for a first-class pitcher. With the opening of the Philadelphia season school with three days off, the pitcher hunt is worried about his pitching staff.

It is not as if Frankford High is in the pitching department. No one is better than Coach Falkenhausen and he realizes that unless some one comes to the front, the team will not make a very deep impression in the Philadelphia Circuit; that is, in the fight for first honors.

Paul Flitter, the only regular from last year's squad, is not a star. He is a good pitcher, but he is not a star. He is a good pitcher, but he is not a star. He is a good pitcher, but he is not a star.

Central High School won its first game of the season yesterday, and as a result, it is the Intercollegiate Baseball League. The Crimson and Gold defeated the Roman Catholic High School by the score of 10 to 7.

BUCK HERZOG AWAITS RETURN OF GIANTS

King of the Holdouts Says He Will Report When Season Opens

New York, April 9.—Buck Herzog, second baseman for Brooklyn in the National League, is a New York today sitting tight and waiting for the return of the Giants when the season opens. He has decided to sign a contract with the Boston Braves except on his own terms.

Spartanburg, S. C., April 9.—The losing streak of the Braves is over. They held today their first victory of the spring season over the Yankees, 10 to 7. The game was played at the stadium in Spartanburg, S. C.

Houston, Texas, April 9.—The Chicago Cubs were on the loose today. They broke the hoodoo spell which had been laid upon them by the Houston Buffaloes in a recent game.

Chicago, April 9.—The Cubs and the White Sox are in a race for the lead in the American League. The Cubs are in the lead, but the White Sox are not far behind.

Providence, R. I., April 9.—The Providence Grays are in a race for the lead in the National League. The Grays are in the lead, but the Boston Braves are not far behind.

Providence, R. I., April 9.—The Providence Grays are in a race for the lead in the National League. The Grays are in the lead, but the Boston Braves are not far behind.

Providence, R. I., April 9.—The Providence Grays are in a race for the lead in the National League. The Grays are in the lead, but the Boston Braves are not far behind.

Providence, R. I., April 9.—The Providence Grays are in a race for the lead in the National League. The Grays are in the lead, but the Boston Braves are not far behind.

Providence, R. I., April 9.—The Providence Grays are in a race for the lead in the National League. The Grays are in the lead, but the Boston Braves are not far behind.

Providence, R. I., April 9.—The Providence Grays are in a race for the lead in the National League. The Grays are in the lead, but the Boston Braves are not far behind.

Providence, R. I., April 9.—The Providence Grays are in a race for the lead in the National League. The Grays are in the lead, but the Boston Braves are not far behind.

Providence, R. I., April 9.—The Providence Grays are in a race for the lead in the National League. The Grays are in the lead, but the Boston Braves are not far behind.

Scholastic Baseball Schedule for This Week

TODAY
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

FRIDAY, APRIL 12
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

SATURDAY, APRIL 13
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

SUNDAY, APRIL 14
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

MONDAY, APRIL 15
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

TUESDAY, APRIL 16
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

FRIDAY, APRIL 19
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

SATURDAY, APRIL 20
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

SUNDAY, APRIL 21
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

MONDAY, APRIL 22
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

TUESDAY, APRIL 23
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

THURSDAY, APRIL 25
Frankford High at Chestnut Hill Academy.
Chestnut Hill at Germantown Academy.
Drexel Institute at Germantown Academy.
West Philadelphia at Germantown Academy.

JOE BORRELL AS A PUNCHING BAG, BUT FAILS TO KNOCK HIM OUT

RUBE OLDING MAKES BIG HIT

A's and Pittsburgh Play Tie Game Before Camp Hancock Soldiers

RECEIVE AN OVATION

Greenlee, S. C., April 9.

The Athletics completed the first two legs of their itinerary northward when they arrived here this morning from Augusta, where they exhibited with the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday in a five-inning contest that failed to develop a run. The final half of the fifth inning was played in a driving rain, it coming down in torrents when the last man was purposely called out on strikes by umpire Lewis in order to terminate the rain and enable the players to get off the field.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain. The Athletics were victorious from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

It was a keen disappointment to the biggest crowd by far that has seen the two teams play that the contest could not be resumed, but as it rained hard all the remainder of the afternoon this was absolutely inevitable. It was a real baseball crowd that greeted the two teams. A vast majority of the spectators were soldiers from Camp Hancock and, in addition, most of them were in advance of the rain.

TWO YANKS WELL KNOWN HERE

The eccentric Ping Bodie, once of the Athletics, and Del Pratt, formerly of the St. Louis Browns, both now regulars on the New York Yankees, were snapped recently at the Yankees' southern training base. Pratt, on the right, is seen conversing with Ping.

The eccentric Ping Bodie, once of the Athletics, and Del Pratt, formerly of the St. Louis Browns, both now regulars on the New York Yankees, were snapped recently at the Yankees' southern training base. Pratt, on the right, is seen conversing with Ping.

TARGET SHOOT AT FACULTY BAN ON HIGHLAND PARK

West Chester-Wilmington Championship Trap Event Listed for Saturday

OTHER GUNNING NOTES

Secretary William Robinson, of the Philadelphia Transmitters' League, has just announced that the tie existing in the circuit between West Chester and Wilmington for the championship of 1917-18, which ended on March 20, will be shot off next Saturday at Highland Park, over the traps of the Meadow Springs organization.

West Chester and Wilmington finished the season with eight victories apiece. West Chester, after winning its first eight matches in a row, succumbed to the Delawareans by a margin of two targets in the final test. The score was: Wilmington, 482; West Chester, 480. In that shoot exactly 162 runners assembled for the match, the victors having scored eighty-eight targets on the firing line. The ten highest scores counting on Wilmington's team registered a pair of 49s and a double target shot of the league record.

With both of the shooting clubs meeting over neutral traps Saturday, a close and exciting test is promised. With the rivalry prevailing it wouldn't be surprising to see around 175 marksmen contesting in the shoot.

Local gunners will indulge in some midweek shooting tomorrow at the Philadelphia Academy Association's traps. A fifty-kind event is the feature of the Wednesday program.

ROWING AT CORNELL MOST BENEFICIAL

Temperate Work Removes Disposition of Sport Toward Heart Trouble

REDUCE THE DISTANCE

The records in the department of physical culture at Cornell University do not show that any of the oarsmen who have rowed in the Cornell regatta have ever suffered from heart trouble brought on by rowing.

In fact, Prof. Charles V. P. Young, head of the physical department, asserts that the Cornell oarsmen are the best type of men developed by the sport. He says that enlargement of the heart caused by athletics is not itself a danger and that the Cornell oarsmen are the best type of men developed by the sport.

In refutation Mr. Young presents the following argument: "The danger from rowing, as from most other strenuous forms of activity, comes from the improper preparation and too sudden discontinuance of active exercise. From my observation of its effects on Cornell oarsmen, I should say that, physically, they are the best type of men turned out and the statistics which are available if they are desired, corroborate my statement. These statistics will also prove in a great measure that the oarsman has the promise of longer life than the average student."

In this connection it might be mentioned that at the fortieth anniversary of the founding of Cornell University yesterday the Cornell regatta was held. A crew of 75 was present and looked fit to take his place in the boat and compete with any crew of similar age which might be gathered together.

"Races Too Long

"To my mind the objection to intercollegiate rowing, as at present conducted in the length of the race. While the same danger arises from a two or three mile race if not properly prepared for, the period of training need not be so extended, and I think all the coaches connected with rowing, Mr. Courtney among the number, are on one in saying that the present duration of four days requires a long and arduous period of training for those who are supposed to be attending the institution primarily for study."

It is where the commercial element enters into rowing, as in other collegiate sports, for the only reason why the Cornell regatta is so long is that the coaches are so numerous. The coaches are so numerous that the regatta is so long. The coaches are so numerous that the regatta is so long.

PHILSWEEP PLAY FOR SOLDIER BOYS

Moranmen and Washington Americans Will Clash at Columbia, S. C.

CAMP JACKSON THERE

Columbia, S. C., April 9.

The Phillies and the Washington Americans will play an exhibition game today, and as Camp Jackson is located here, it will be a big treat for the thousands of men in the service. It will be the first time this year that the army men here have had an opportunity of seeing the two teams play.

The camp is full of red-blooded baseball fans and with any kind of weather there will be a big turnout this afternoon.

On the eve of the team's start from Jacksonville for the North, Moran lost one half play and still good chance of losing another. Bill McKenty, the Philadelphia youngster, who has been doing good work all spring, told Manager Moran that he intended to give up baseball to join the navy. McKenty is in the draft and wants to enlist before being called.

McKenty is the well of the young southward and predicted that he would be in the big show after one year's experience in the minor leagues. He wanted to send him to the Louisville Colonels. McKenty's action calls everything off.

The other doubtful one is Ben Timpner, the Indian pitcher. When he reported here Ben stated that he was away down in the draft, but he received word that he had been pulled out of the draft and is likely to be called at any time. The loss of Timpner will be a severe one, as he is depended upon to win quite a number of games in the coming season.

Barrels, who is a giant in strength, was the Red and Blue entry for the pentathlon and there was an excellent chance for him to make good in the all-around championship, which has been held for the last three years by Howard Berry.

Barrels can throw the javelin and the discus, a good distance, can brand jump fairly well and is good on the under path. Last fall, he ran in the hurdle race of the handicap meet and won the 220-yard event.

Barrels is a right snappy athlete. It is likely that Joe Van Gilder, the end of last year's football team, may carry the colors in the all-around.

Barrels, who is a giant in strength, was the Red and Blue entry for the pentathlon and there was an excellent chance for him to make good in the all-around championship, which has been held for the last three years by Howard Berry.

Barrels can throw the javelin and the discus, a good distance, can brand jump fairly well and is good on the under path. Last fall, he ran in the hurdle race of the handicap meet and won the 220-yard event.

Barrels is a right snappy athlete. It is likely that Joe Van Gilder, the end of last year's football team, may carry the colors in the all-around.

Barrels, who is a giant in strength, was the Red and Blue entry for the pentathlon and there was an excellent chance for him to make good in the all-around championship, which has been held for the last three years by Howard Berry.

Barrels can throw the javelin and the discus, a good distance, can brand jump fairly well and is good on the under path. Last fall, he ran in the hurdle race of the handicap meet and won the 220-yard event.

Barrels is a right snappy athlete. It is likely that Joe Van Gilder, the end of last year's football team, may carry the colors in the all-around.

Barrels, who is a giant in strength, was the Red and Blue entry for the pentathlon and there was an excellent chance for him to make good in the all-around championship, which has been held for the last three years by Howard Berry.

Barrels can throw the javelin and the discus, a good distance, can brand jump fairly well and is good on the under path. Last fall, he ran in the hurdle race of the handicap meet and won the 220-yard event.

Barrels is a right snappy athlete. It is likely that Joe Van Gilder, the end of last year's football team, may carry the colors in the all-around.

CHAMPION BENNY LEONARD

WALLOPS YOUNG JOE BORRELL, BUT FAILS TO KNOCK HIM OUT

Lightweight Titleholder Decisively

Defeats Local Boy in First Bout in Four Months

WEIGHS MORE THAN 140

By BILL BELL

ALL doubts as to whether Benny Leonard, the popular world's lightweight champion, had lost any of his unusual cleverness of foot and machine-like hitting ability as a result of his four months' work as boxing instructor at 14,000 men at Camp Upton were smashed to smithereens or something last night at the weekly show of the Olympia A. C. when he out-buffed, out-boxed, out-punched, out-boxed—but didn't out-name Joe Borrell in six fast and exciting rounds.

Many were of the opinion that the four months' lay-off from real fighting would tend to slow up the debusher of Freddy Welsh, but his performance of last night demonstrated that when he is in the ring he is still the lightweight king.

The bout last night was his first fight in four months. His duties at Camp Upton have kept him away from the ring. The Benny Leonard knockout punch and not how to defend oneself. As a result, he has been on the defensive the majority of the time and has been forced to extend himself in an effort to stop his opponents.

Leonard Very Serious

It was a different Leonard that entered the Olympia ring last night than the one that stopped Johnny Kilbane at the end of the year. Leonard's hair brushed nicely, but there was a marked change in his face. Instead of the half-smiling countenance Benny had a set, serious expression and when he started to fight he went about his work in a determined and businesslike manner.

His work at the camp had filled him out, and although he weighed 140 pounds, he was a good deal heavier than when he started. He was a good deal heavier than when he started. He was a good deal heavier than when he started.

Knocks Borrell Through Ropes

Borrell appeared nervous in the opening round and started for his corner following him with cautious movements. It wasn't until two minutes had passed that the champion let loose. He backed Borrell against the ropes and slashed out with a left hook, which caught Joe on the side of the jaw and shook him up considerably and sent him reeling by missing his balance.

Leonard thought the whistle was the end of the round and started for his corner. Billy Gibson shouted to Benny to carry on, so he turned and walked over to the very weak Borrell and sent a right hand to his forehead. He was a good deal heavier than when he started. He was a good deal heavier than when he started.

During the intermission Muggsy Taylor worked like a bee with his boy. Many of the crowd had gathered their hats and overcoats together, anticipating a knockout in the second round. But Borrell was far from a knockout. He kept his guard high and sent his punches at Leonard. He was a good deal heavier than when he started. He was a good deal heavier than when he started.

Joe took everything Leonard had in the third and fourth rounds and also gave some in return. The game fight Borrell was making had won the house over to his favor, and every time he landed a blow the crowd applauded. Once Joe, after landing an overhand right on Leonard's jaw, had an excellent opening to shoot one of his homebody punches across, but he failed to seize the opportunity.

Leonard Cut Over Eye

The sixth was similar to the other rounds, with Leonard striving to land a haymaker. It couldn't be done, however, as the crowd of the several thousand spectators the round ended with Borrell still on his feet. The blood was streaming down his face, but he cut out on his chest and nose, while Leonard had a cut over his eye and his nose was a little damaged. Borrell made many friends by his pucky showing against such great odds.

Leonard was accompanied by his brother, his manager, Billy Gibson, and

Evening Ledger Decisions of Ring Bouts Last Night

Olympia A. C.—Benny Leonard defeated Young Joe Borrell. Eddie Kelly won from Young Joe Borrell. Freddie Brown defeated Jack Taylor. Harry Wallace drew with Abe Attell. Frankie Brown drew with Abe Attell. Frankie Brown drew with Abe Attell. Frankie Brown drew with Abe Attell.

Leonard—Battling Brown drew with Young Joe Borrell. Eddie Kelly won from Young Joe Borrell. Freddie Brown defeated Jack Taylor. Harry Wallace drew with Abe Attell. Frankie Brown drew with Abe Attell. Frankie Brown drew with Abe Attell.

Chelms, Mass.—Phil Bloom disqualified in seven rounds. He was 12-round bout with Irish Pete Cline for holding with one hand and hitting with the other.

Captain Frank Gluck, the former Princeton star who is the athletic director at Camp Upton, where Leonard is boxing instructor. The title holder will meet Jack Brisco at the National A. A. Saturday night.

O'Brien Loses

Harlem Eddie Kelly, of New York, was the only thing that stopped Young Jack O'Brien from winning the honor of being the champion of the world. He was a good deal heavier than when he started. He was a good deal heavier than when he started.

Another all-star bantam show has been arranged by the matchmaker of the National A. A. C. for Saturday evening, April 10. Eddie O'Grady, Jack Weinstein's boy, will draw the title from the champion, Kid Williams. The match will be a 12-round bout.

Brown Downey, the Columbus writer, and Tommy Robinson, of Malden, Mass., will meet in a round-bout at Boston tomorrow evening.

N. O. Eagers, the New York bantam, has been matched to meet Jimmy Pappas, the champion of the world, in a 12-round bout at Atlantic City, April 24.

Tom Lewis, the welterweight champion, will meet the champion of the world, Billy Gibson, at the National A. A. C. on April 10.

Joe Tuber and Young McGovern will show in the window at the Columbia Club, 1000 Broadway, on Saturday evening, April 10. The semifinal will be a return bout between Joe Tuber and Young McGovern.

Joe Leonard, of Brooklyn, and Young Brisco, the Syracuse bantam, will meet in a return bout at Buffalo tomorrow evening.

Wally Nelson, brother of Al, is training at High School's gymnasium for his bout with the champion of the world, Billy Gibson, at the National A. A. C. on April 10.

George (Kid) Ashe, the local light heavyweight, boxes Jack Turner, the Indian, in a 12-round bout at Atlantic City, Thursday evening.

Three Leonards are on the National A. A. program for Saturday evening. The opening bout will be between Harry Leonard, Philadelphia, and Young McGovern, Philadelphia. The second bout will be between Billy Leonard, Philadelphia, and Young McGovern, Philadelphia.

Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, and George Chub, the Newcastle middleweight, will be in the ring in a 12-round encounter at Bridgeport, Conn., Monday evening, April 15.

Frankie Rowan, the Milwaukee featherweight, will meet the champion of the world, Billy Gibson, at the National A. A. C. on April 10.

Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, and George Chub, the Newcastle middleweight, will be in the ring in a 12-round encounter at Bridgeport, Conn., Monday evening, April 15.